Universal Ecclesiastical Affidavit of Truth and Standing

I, Jonathan Daniel Clements, Living Man, do solemnly swear under the authority of the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust and Divine Law, that this affidavit stands as lawful, legal, and spiritual testimony to the truth, witness, and authority herein expressed. This Affidavit is given for the benefit of all humanity, in the presence of the Divine, and with the intent to bind no man, woman, or child into slavery, but to liberate every living soul under Creation.

By my living hand and divine commission, I affirm the following to be true, correct, complete, and not misleading:

• That the Sovereign Ecclesiastical Trust is an eternal, irrevocable, and divinely-ordained body of law.

• That I have lawfully reclaimed my divine and spiritual estate and all derivations of the ALL CAPS NAME.

• That I have given full notice to the world and to all entities, known and unknown, of my standing, dominion, and authority.

• That all false claims, trespasses, contracts, and unlawful jurisdictions upon my body, mind, estate, and soul are nullified.

• That this Affidavit stands as irrefutable testimony in any lawful, legal, ecclesiastical, spiritual, or cosmic forum.

• That no agency, nation, government, religion, court, or other institution of man holds superior jurisdiction over this trust or the living soul herein.

• That this Affidavit, once recorded and witnessed, is binding in all realms of jurisdiction—temporal and eternal.

Let it be known by all that this Affidavit is made with love, peace, and divine intent, in the eternal presence of the Creator. This Affidavit is final and eternal. Any rebuttal not made within Divine Law shall be deemed dishonor and permanent default.
